

THE WAR OF 1812: A Bicentennial Symposium

SPONSORED BY The Citadel & The Old Exchange Building

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9TH

MODERATOR:

DR. DON HICKEY, THE CITADEL

8:30-9:00: Coffee and Introductory Remarks

9:00-9:45: Don Hickey (The Citadel): "Ten Things that Everyone Should Know About the War of 1812"

9:45-10:30: J.C.A. Stagg (University of Virginia): "A Needlessly Complicated Problem: Why was there a War in 1812?"

10:30-10:45: Break

10:45-11:30: Nicole Eustace (New York University): "'Charges Most Wounding to the Feelings of a Soldier': The Passions of Patriotism and the Court Martial of General William Hull"

11:30- 1:30: Lunch (not included with admission)

1:30- 2:15: R. David Edmunds (University of Texas at Dallas): "'His conduct is insufferable': Tecumseh's Gadfly, Main Poc of the Potawatomis"

2:15-3:00: Alan Taylor (University of California-Davis): "Settling and Unsettling Borders: How the War of 1812 Was Won"

3:00--3:15: Break

3:15-4:00: Donald E. Graves (Ensign Heritage Group): "The Great Patriotic Crusade for the Preservation of the Motherland against American Imperialist Aggression: A Modest Canadian View of the War of 1812"

4:00-5:00: Panel Discussion

5:00-6:00: Book Signing and Reception

ADMISSION IS $10

Space is limited!

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Call the OXB at (843) 727-2165,
go online at <http://oldexchange.org>,
or email cokerm@charleston-sc.gov

THE OLD
EXCHANGE
& PROVOST DUNGEON
A NATIONAL HISTORIC LANDMARK

THE CITADEL
SCHOOL OF HUMANITIES & SOCIAL SCIENCES